

Two Entrances to Miller & Rhoads' Broad St., Sixth St.

THE WEATHER—Saturday rain or snow.

New Tailor-Made
Silk Waists $3.98.

Fine quality Taffeta, stitched back and front, full sleeve with stitched cuffs.

Principal colors including black. These waists came in by express from New York and are among the newest and best creations of the season.

A garment that is creditable to the woman that wears it and the store that sells it—especially at as low a price as $3.98.

Two Special Things to Remember.

First, that our Night Gowns at 50c, 75c, 98c and $1.25 each. Not only have no superior, but cannot be equalled in value at these prices. People that have looked at others tell us this.

Second—that if you need Embroideries—and every woman does—that our new Edges, Insertings and Flouncings from the narrowest edges, two inches wide, to flouncings, twenty-two inches wide, can supply your wants at lower prices for good embroidery than you'll find anywhere else, 10c, 15c, 25c, 35c and 50c.

Miller & Rhoads

May Manton Patterns, 10c. each, on sale in our Trimming Department.

GOODE MEETS HIS DEATH CALMLY

Successful Hanging of Police Inspector Shinberger's Slayer.

SMILED AS CAP WAS PLACED

Requested That Body be Buried in Catholic Cemetery. Was Baptized.

James Goode, the negro who was convicted in the Hustings Court of the murder of Police Inspector John F. Shinberger, was hanged in the yard of the city jail yesterday at 11:30 A. M., and while the man was practically dead as soon as the drop fell, yet according to Drs. A. G. Brown and Charles Leberberg, his heart beat for nineteen minutes thereafter.

The condemned negro heard Sergeant Smith read the death warrant without a tremor, and smiled a farewell to his spiritual advisers as the black cap was being drawn over his face. The trap was sprung by an unseen hand, and the hanging was in every way successful. The man never lost his nerve, according to the officers and the one hundred and fifty others who witnessed the hanging.

Asked by Mr. Smith if he had anything to say, Goode replied in a firm voice: "No, sir."

"You have been a good prisoner, Jim; good-bye," the sergeant said.

"Thank you; good-bye," Goode replied, smiling.

"Good-bye, James," said young Father Hamilton, with a cheerful smile, patting him on the shoulder. "Your eyes are being closed to things of earth; turn them to the happiness of that beyond."

"Yes, father," the condemned man replied brightly, with a confident smile; "Good-bye."

Prisoner Baptized.

The trap was sprung, and in a few moments all was over.

Father Murphy administered the sacrament of baptism about 9:15 A. M. yesterday and remained with the prisoner until the end, along with Fathers Hamilton and Stuhman.

At 11:30 Goode had breakfast and a little over an hour later was hurled into eternity.

The following note was written and given out by Goode:

To Father Murphy, Father Hamilton and the Sisters:

I give thanks to them and all the Catholic Church for what you have done for me. Trusting that God will Bless you all and me James B. Goode will always pray for the Catholic Church. I also give thanks to all my friends who have helped me in this trouble of mine both White and Colored.

Yours truly,

JAS. GOODE.

Give my Love to the Colored Boys at the Colored Catholic School and tell them to live honest before God and He will always be with them. Good-bye.

The other letter was written yesterday and addressed to Jack Nance, a guard in the city jail. It said:

Dear Sir,—Please ask Mr. Reed instead of sending me home have me buried in the Catholic graveyard as my Brother pointed out. I am satisfied that the Priest will see to it if you all will do the same for me that you would if I had been sent home. I thank you all if you will.

JAS. GOODE.

The request as to the burial was complied with, as the law provides that the body shall go to the Virginia Anatomical Board, and it was turned over to that body.

The scaffold on which Goode was hanged will be taken back to the State Farm, it having been loaned by the penitentiary authorities.

NEW CHARTERS GRANTED.

Five Companies Authorized by the Corporation Commission.

The State Corporation Commission has granted the following charters:

The Eddy Press Corporation, Winchester, Md.; J. C. Greer, president; Martinsville, Va.; H. N. Dyer, vice-president; Martinsville, Va.; H. N. Dyer, secretary and treasurer; Martinsville, Va.; Capital stock, $25,000. Objects: To conduct and carry on a wholesale grocery and general mercantile business.

The Eddy Press Corporation, Winchester, Md.; J. C. Greer, president; Martinsville, Va.; H. N. Dyer, vice-president; Martinsville, Va.; H. N. Dyer, secretary and treasurer; Martinsville, Va.; Capital stock, $25,000. Objects: To do all and every kind of book and job printing, including electro-plating and engraving, and lithography.

Virginia Spoke and Handle Company, (Incorporated), Martinsville, Va.; J. C. Greer, president; Martinsville, Va.; J. C. Greer, secretary and treasurer; Martinsville, Va.; Capital stock, $25,000. Objects: To manufacture and sell spokes, handles, reins, whips, stocks, etc.

W. B. Ford Furniture Company, (Incorporated), Norton, Va.; W. B. Ford, president; Norton, Va.; W. B. Ford, general manager; Norton, Va.; W. L. Stinson, secretary and treasurer; Norton, Va.; Capital stock, $25,000. Objects: Retail and wholesale mercantile business, furniture, kitchen and household goods, pictures, etc.

Raleigh Realty Corporation, Norfolk, Va.; J. K. Peckles, president; Norfolk, Va.; R. A. Walworth, vice-president; Norfolk, Va.; Charles M. Tansill, secretary and treasurer; Norfolk, Va.; Capital stock, $25,000. Objects: To erect houses, buy and sell real estate, etc.

ELKS' CHRISTMAS TREE.

Members of Richmond Lodge

Receive Their Presents.

The annual Christmas celebration of Richmond Lodge of Elks was held at the home on Thursday night. Messrs. Claiborne Kipp and J. Macfarlane Jones, acting as Santa Claus. They were introduced by Mr. John Lamb, and immediately began the distribution of appropriate gifts to the members. In this State, Judge John A. Buchanan, the last of the distribution, during which there was much fun, a smoker was indulged in.

Want to be Lawyers.

A class of forty-five law students were engaged at the city hall yesterday to receive their diplomas from the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. The examination required for license to practice law in this State, Judge John A. Buchanan, the last of the distribution, during which there was much fun, a smoker was indulged in.

Mrs. Hastings's Death.

Mrs. Lily M. Hastings, whose death Wednesday in Fairfax County, has been noted was Miss Lily M. New, a daughter of the late James W. and Louisa G. New, of Richmond. She is survived by one brother, Mr. N. W. Hastings, manager of J. G. Dill's tobacco factory, here, and a sister, Mrs. L. S. Jackson, of Hartford, Conn., in which city the interment was made.

Small Boys Arrested.

Detective Wren and Policeman Jennings yesterday arrested three small white boys, on the suspicion that one of them shot a colored girl, Dottie Gaskins, in trying to protect himself from a crowd of negro boys. The case will be heard in Police Court this morning.

Brewers Have Banquet.

The Brewers' Union of this city recently enjoyed themselves greatly at Lerch's, when their annual banquet was given. John Smith, Miss Lily M. New, a daughter of the late James W. and Louisa G. New, of Richmond. She is survived by one brother, Mr. N. W. Hastings, manager of J. G. Dill's tobacco factory, here, and a sister, Mrs. L. S. Jackson, of Hartford, Conn., in which city the interment was made.

Small Boys Arrested.

Detective Wren and Policeman Jennings yesterday arrested three small white boys, on the suspicion that one of them shot a colored girl, Dottie Gaskins, in trying to protect himself from a crowd of negro boys. The case will be heard in Police Court this morning.

Brewers Have Banquet.

The Brewers' Union of this city recently enjoyed themselves greatly at Lerch's, when their annual banquet was given. John Smith, Miss Lily M. New, a daughter of the late James W. and Louisa G. New, of Richmond. She is survived by one brother, Mr. N. W. Hastings, manager of J. G. Dill's tobacco factory, here, and a sister, Mrs. L. S. Jackson, of Hartford, Conn., in which city the interment was made.

Small Boys Arrested.

Detective Wren and Policeman Jennings yesterday arrested three small white boys, on the suspicion that one of them shot a colored girl, Dottie Gaskins, in trying to protect himself from a crowd of negro boys. The case will be heard in Police Court this morning.

Brewers Have Banquet.

The Brewers' Union of this city recently enjoyed themselves greatly at Lerch's, when their annual banquet was given. John Smith, Miss Lily M. New, a daughter of the late James W. and Louisa G. New, of Richmond. She is survived by one brother, Mr. N. W. Hastings, manager of J. G. Dill's tobacco factory, here, and a sister, Mrs. L. S. Jackson, of Hartford, Conn., in which city the interment was made.

Small Boys Arrested.

Detective Wren and Policeman Jennings yesterday arrested three small white boys, on the suspicion that one of them shot a colored girl, Dottie Gaskins, in trying to protect himself from a crowd of negro boys. The case will be heard in Police Court this morning.

Brewers Have Banquet.

The Brewers' Union of this city recently enjoyed themselves greatly at Lerch's, when their annual banquet was given. John Smith, Miss Lily M. New, a daughter of the late James W. and Louisa G. New, of Richmond. She is survived by one brother, Mr. N. W. Hastings, manager of J. G. Dill's tobacco factory, here, and a sister, Mrs. L. S. Jackson, of Hartford, Conn., in which city the interment was made.

Small Boys Arrested.

Detective Wren and Policeman Jennings yesterday arrested three small white boys, on the suspicion that one of them shot a colored girl, Dottie Gaskins, in trying to protect himself from a crowd of negro boys. The case will be heard in Police Court this morning.

Brewers Have Banquet.

The Brewers' Union of this city recently enjoyed themselves greatly at Lerch's, when their annual banquet was given. John Smith, Miss Lily M. New, a daughter of the late James W. and Louisa G. New, of Richmond. She is survived by one brother, Mr. N. W. Hastings, manager of J. G. Dill's tobacco factory, here, and a sister, Mrs. L. S. Jackson, of Hartford, Conn., in which city the interment was made.

Small Boys Arrested.

Detective Wren and Policeman Jennings yesterday arrested three small white boys, on the suspicion that one of them shot a colored girl, Dottie Gaskins, in trying to protect himself from a crowd of negro boys. The case will be heard in Police Court this morning.

Brewers Have Banquet.

The Brewers' Union of this city recently enjoyed themselves greatly at Lerch's, when their annual banquet was given. John Smith, Miss Lily M. New, a daughter of the late James W. and Louisa G. New, of Richmond. She is survived by one brother, Mr. N. W. Hastings, manager of J. G. Dill's tobacco factory, here, and a sister, Mrs. L. S. Jackson, of Hartford, Conn., in which city the interment was made.

Small Boys Arrested.

Detective Wren and Policeman Jennings yesterday arrested three small white boys, on the suspicion that one of them shot a colored girl, Dottie Gaskins, in trying to protect himself from a crowd of negro boys. The case will be heard in Police Court this morning.

Brewers Have Banquet.

The Brewers' Union of this city recently enjoyed themselves greatly at Lerch's, when their annual banquet was given. John Smith, Miss Lily M. New, a daughter of the late James W. and Louisa G. New, of Richmond. She is survived by one brother, Mr. N. W. Hastings, manager of J. G. Dill's tobacco factory, here, and a sister, Mrs. L. S. Jackson, of Hartford, Conn., in which city the interment was made.

Small Boys Arrested.

Detective Wren and Policeman Jennings yesterday arrested three small white boys, on the suspicion that one of them shot a colored girl, Dottie Gaskins, in trying to protect himself from a crowd of negro boys. The case will be heard in Police Court this morning.

Brewers Have Banquet.

The Brewers' Union of this city recently enjoyed themselves greatly at Lerch's, when their annual banquet was given. John Smith, Miss Lily M. New, a daughter of the late James W. and Louisa G. New, of Richmond. She is survived by one brother, Mr. N. W. Hastings, manager of J. G. Dill's tobacco factory, here, and a sister, Mrs. L. S. Jackson, of Hartford, Conn., in which city the interment was made.

Small Boys Arrested.

Detective Wren and Policeman Jennings yesterday arrested three small white boys, on the suspicion that one of them shot a colored girl, Dottie Gaskins, in trying to protect himself from a crowd of negro boys. The case will be heard in Police Court this morning.

Brewers Have Banquet.

The Brewers' Union of this city recently enjoyed themselves greatly at Lerch's, when their annual banquet was given. John Smith, Miss Lily M. New, a daughter of the late James W. and Louisa G. New, of Richmond. She is survived by one brother, Mr. N. W. Hastings, manager of J. G. Dill's tobacco factory, here, and a sister, Mrs. L. S. Jackson, of Hartford, Conn., in which city the interment was made.

Small Boys Arrested.

Detective Wren and Policeman Jennings yesterday arrested three small white boys, on the suspicion that one of them shot a colored girl, Dottie Gaskins, in trying to protect himself from a crowd of negro boys. The case will be heard in Police Court this morning.

Brewers Have Banquet.

The Brewers' Union of this city recently enjoyed themselves greatly at Lerch's, when their annual banquet was given. John Smith, Miss Lily M. New, a daughter of the late James W. and Louisa G. New, of Richmond. She is survived by one brother, Mr. N. W. Hastings, manager of J. G. Dill's tobacco factory, here, and a sister, Mrs. L. S. Jackson, of Hartford, Conn., in which city the interment was made.

Small Boys Arrested.

Detective Wren and Policeman Jennings yesterday arrested three small white boys, on the suspicion that one of them shot a colored girl, Dottie Gaskins, in trying to protect himself from a crowd of negro boys. The case will be heard in Police Court this morning.

Brewers Have Banquet.

The Brewers' Union of this city recently enjoyed themselves greatly at Lerch's, when their annual banquet was given. John Smith, Miss Lily M. New, a daughter of the late James W. and Louisa G. New, of Richmond. She is survived by one brother, Mr. N. W. Hastings, manager of J. G. Dill's tobacco factory, here, and a sister, Mrs. L. S. Jackson, of Hartford, Conn., in which city the interment was made.

Small Boys Arrested.

Detective Wren and Policeman Jennings yesterday arrested three small white boys, on the suspicion that one of them shot a colored girl, Dottie Gaskins, in trying to protect himself from a crowd of negro boys. The case will be heard in Police Court this morning.

Brewers Have Banquet.

The Brewers' Union of this city recently enjoyed themselves greatly at Lerch's, when their annual banquet was given. John Smith, Miss Lily M. New, a daughter of the late James W. and Louisa G. New, of Richmond. She is survived by one brother, Mr. N. W. Hastings, manager of J. G. Dill's tobacco factory, here, and a sister, Mrs. L. S. Jackson, of Hartford, Conn., in which city the interment was made.

Small Boys Arrested.

Detective Wren and Policeman Jennings yesterday arrested three small white boys, on the suspicion that one of them shot a colored girl, Dottie Gaskins, in trying to protect himself from a crowd of negro boys. The case will be heard in Police Court this morning.

Brewers Have Banquet.

The Brewers' Union of this city recently enjoyed themselves greatly at Lerch's, when their annual banquet was given. John Smith, Miss Lily M. New, a daughter of the late James W. and Louisa G. New, of Richmond. She is survived by one brother, Mr. N. W. Hastings, manager of J. G. Dill's tobacco factory, here, and a sister, Mrs. L. S. Jackson, of Hartford, Conn., in which city the interment was made.

Small Boys Arrested.

Detective Wren and Policeman Jennings yesterday arrested three small white boys, on the suspicion that one of them shot a colored girl, Dottie Gaskins, in trying to protect himself from a crowd of negro boys. The case will be heard in Police Court this morning.

Brewers Have Banquet.

The Brewers' Union of this city recently enjoyed themselves greatly at Lerch's, when their annual banquet was given. John Smith, Miss Lily M. New, a daughter of the late James W. and Louisa G. New, of Richmond. She is survived by one brother, Mr. N. W. Hastings, manager of J. G. Dill's tobacco factory, here, and a sister, Mrs. L. S. Jackson, of Hartford, Conn., in which city the interment was made.

Small Boys Arrested.

Detective Wren and Policeman Jennings yesterday arrested three small white boys, on the suspicion that one of them shot a colored girl, Dottie Gaskins, in trying to protect himself from a crowd of negro boys. The case will be heard in Police Court this morning.

Brewers Have Banquet.

The Brewers' Union of this city recently enjoyed themselves greatly at Lerch's, when their annual banquet was given. John Smith, Miss Lily M. New, a daughter of the late James W. and Louisa G. New, of Richmond. She is survived by one brother, Mr. N. W. Hastings, manager of J. G. Dill's tobacco factory, here, and a sister, Mrs. L. S. Jackson, of Hartford, Conn., in which city the interment was made.

Small Boys Arrested.

Detective Wren and Policeman Jennings yesterday arrested three small white boys, on the suspicion that one of them shot a colored girl, Dottie Gaskins, in trying to protect himself from a crowd of negro boys. The case will be heard in Police Court this morning.

Brewers Have Banquet.

The Brewers' Union of this city recently enjoyed themselves greatly at Lerch's, when their annual banquet was given. John Smith, Miss Lily M. New, a daughter of the late James W. and Louisa G. New, of Richmond. She is survived by one brother, Mr. N. W. Hastings, manager of J. G. Dill's tobacco factory, here, and a sister, Mrs. L. S. Jackson, of Hartford, Conn., in which city the interment was made.

Small Boys Arrested.

Detective Wren and Policeman Jennings yesterday arrested three small white boys, on the suspicion that one of them shot a colored girl, Dottie Gaskins, in trying to protect himself from a crowd of negro boys. The case will be heard in Police Court this morning.

Brewers Have Banquet.

The Brewers' Union of this city recently enjoyed themselves greatly at Lerch's, when their annual banquet was given. John Smith, Miss Lily M. New, a daughter of the late James W. and Louisa G. New, of Richmond. She is survived by one brother, Mr. N. W. Hastings, manager of J. G. Dill's tobacco factory, here, and a sister, Mrs. L. S. Jackson, of Hartford, Conn., in which city the interment was made.

Small Boys Arrested.

Detective Wren and Policeman Jennings yesterday arrested three small white boys, on the suspicion that one of them shot a colored girl, Dottie Gaskins, in trying to protect himself from a crowd of negro boys. The case will be heard in Police Court this morning.

Brewers Have Banquet.

The Brewers' Union of this city recently enjoyed themselves greatly at Lerch's, when their annual banquet was given. John Smith, Miss Lily M. New, a daughter of the late James W. and Louisa G. New, of Richmond. She is survived by one brother, Mr. N. W. Hastings, manager of J. G. Dill's tobacco factory, here, and a sister, Mrs. L. S. Jackson, of Hartford, Conn., in which city the interment was made.

THE TIMES OF THE CITY MINISTERS

Subjects to be Discussed in Richmond Pulpits To-morrow.

REVIVAL AT BROAD STREET

Christmas Music to be Repeated at Monumental Church.

The pastors of the city who will all the pulpits on to-morrow morning have selected some most interesting subjects upon which they will address their several congregations.

Rev. R. H. Atwell, of Danville, will preach at both services at Broad Street Methodist Church. He is recognized as one of the most forceful preachers in the Methodist Church in Virginia. He will take as his subject at the morning service "The Value of Prayer." In the evening his subject will be "The Doom of the Evil-doer."

At the Grove Avenue Baptist Church Dr. J. B. Hawthorne will discuss in the morning "The Significance of Christ's Morning." His Disciples on a Galilean Mountain After His Resurrection and His Promise to be With Them to the End of the World." In this sermon he will show the fallacy of the higher criticism which teach that Christ is with His people in thought and sympathy, and not in person.

At the evening service his subject will be "Soul Vision, or Approaching Spiritual Realities."

At Second Baptist Church, in the morning, Dr. J. M. Picher will speak of the Sunday School Board. In the evening Dr. Smith will have for his subject "Mighty to Save."

At Broad Street Memorial Baptist Church the pastor, Rev. C. P. Staley, will preach at both services. Morning subject: "How to Defeat the Devil," and at 8 P. M. the theme will be "The Shout of Victory."

Dr. C. S. Gardner will preach both morning and evening at the Grace Street Baptist Church. Morning theme: "Things That Go Wrong." Evening subject: "Seeking a Lost Opportunity."

The Rev. James Buchanan, secretary of City Missions, will preach at the Randolph Street Baptist Church Sunday morning. The pastor, Rev. W. E. Robertson, will preach at the night service.

The pastor, Dr. Young, will preach at both services at Christ Church. Morning subject: "Our Father." Evening subject: "The Lapsed Man."

At the January meeting of the officers of the Junior Auxiliary, it was decided to hold a service at the morning subject: "The Lapsed Man." The subject at night will be "Conversion—The Case of the Eunuch of Ethiopia."

To-morrow will be Communion Sunday at Venetia Street Church, and the pastor, Rev. W. T. Darlow, will preach at both services. He will take for his theme in the morning "Some Motives for the New Year." At the evening service he will take as his subject "Paul's Reasons for Not Being Ashamed of the Gospel of Christ."

The choir of Monumental Church will repeat its Christmas musical programme at the morning and evening services to-morrow.

Rev. John L. Robinson will preach at the First Unitarian Church to-morrow morning, and will take as his subject "Religious Thoughts, Old and New." Dr. Robinson's address is 1000 North Main Street.

Regular services will be held at St. James Methodist Church to-morrow morning and night. The morning subject will be "The Future Glory—The Manifestation of the Ideal." At night the pastor will preach the last of the series for young men, to be entitled "The Christian's Life." The evening service will be "The Christian's Life."

Following the week of prayer there will be special services every night at this church, conducted by the pastor.

At Marshall Street Christian Church to-morrow morning, the pastor's subject will be "The Christian's Life." The evening service will be "The Christian's Life." The pastor, Mr. Muckley, is one of the best known preachers among the Disciples, and no doubt the church will be filled upon the occasion of his visit.

At Laurel Street Methodist Church to-morrow night, the pastor, Rev. J. A. Thompson, will preach the last of the series for young men, to be entitled "The Christian's Life." The evening service will be "The Christian's Life." The pastor, Mr. Muckley, is one of the best known preachers among the Disciples, and no doubt the church will be filled upon the occasion of his visit.

At Laurel Street Methodist Church to-morrow night, the pastor, Rev. J. A. Thompson, will preach the last of the series for young men, to be entitled "The Christian's Life." The evening service will be "The Christian's Life." The pastor, Mr. Muckley, is one of the best known preachers among the Disciples, and no doubt the church will be filled upon the occasion of his visit.

At Laurel Street Methodist Church to-morrow night, the pastor, Rev. J. A. Thompson, will preach the last of the series for young men, to be entitled "The Christian's Life." The evening service will be "The Christian's Life." The pastor, Mr. Muckley, is one of the best known preachers among the Disciples, and no doubt the church will be filled upon the occasion of his visit.

At Laurel Street Methodist Church to-morrow night, the pastor, Rev. J. A. Thompson, will preach the last of the series for young men, to be entitled "The Christian's Life." The evening service will be "The Christian's Life." The pastor, Mr. Muckley, is one of the best known preachers among the Disciples, and no doubt the church will be filled upon the occasion of his visit.

At Laurel Street Methodist Church to-morrow night, the pastor, Rev. J. A. Thompson, will preach the last of the series for young men, to be entitled "The Christian's Life." The evening service will be "The Christian's Life." The pastor, Mr. Muckley, is one of the best known preachers among the Disciples, and no doubt the church will be filled upon the occasion of his visit.

At Laurel Street Methodist Church to-morrow night, the pastor, Rev. J. A. Thompson, will preach the last of the series for young men, to be entitled "The Christian's Life." The evening service will be "The Christian's Life." The pastor, Mr. Muckley, is one of the best known preachers among the Disciples, and no doubt the church will be filled upon the occasion of his visit.

At Laurel Street Methodist Church to-morrow night, the pastor, Rev. J. A. Thompson, will preach the last of the series for young men, to be entitled "The Christian's Life." The evening service will be "The Christian's Life." The pastor, Mr. Muckley, is one of the best known preachers among the Disciples, and no doubt the church will be filled upon the occasion of his visit.

At Laurel Street Methodist Church to-morrow night, the pastor, Rev. J. A. Thompson, will preach the last of the series for young men, to be entitled "The Christian's Life." The evening service will be "The Christian's Life." The pastor, Mr. Muckley, is one of the best known preachers among the Disciples, and no doubt the church will be filled upon the occasion of his visit.

At Laurel Street Methodist Church to-morrow night, the pastor, Rev. J. A. Thompson, will preach the last of the series for young men, to be entitled "The Christian's Life." The evening service will be "The Christian's Life." The pastor, Mr. Muckley, is one of the best known preachers among the Disciples, and no doubt the church will be filled upon the occasion of his visit.

At Laurel Street Methodist Church to-morrow night, the pastor, Rev. J. A. Thompson, will preach the last of the series for young men, to be entitled "The Christian's Life." The evening service will be "The Christian's Life." The pastor, Mr. Muckley, is one of the best known preachers among the Disciples, and no doubt the church will be filled upon the occasion of his visit.

At Laurel Street Methodist Church to-morrow night, the pastor, Rev. J. A. Thompson, will preach the last of the series for young men, to be entitled "The Christian's Life." The evening service will be "The Christian's Life." The pastor, Mr. Muckley, is one of the best known preachers among the Disciples, and no doubt the church will be filled upon the occasion of his visit.

At Laurel Street Methodist Church to-morrow night, the pastor, Rev. J. A. Thompson, will preach the last of the series for young men, to be entitled "The Christian's Life." The evening service will be "The Christian's Life." The pastor, Mr. Muckley, is one of the best known preachers among the Disciples, and no doubt the church will be filled upon the occasion of his visit.

the attorney-general, for the Commonwealth, No. 4, on Corporation Commission docket, Virginia Iron, Coal and Coke Company vs. Roberts; Johnson and others vs. Black and others, Nos. 5 and 6 on the privileged docket, and Roy and others vs. W. W. R. R. vs. Company vs. the town of Suffolk, No. 18 on argument docket.

RECEPTION TO PASTOR.

Rev. J. Sidney Peters Warmly Greeted by Trinity M. E. Church. The members of Trinity Methodist Church gave a most delightful reception to the new pastor, Rev. J. Sidney Peters, a pleasing reception in the lecture room of the church on Wednesday night.

The Virginia W. Harrison, of the official board, made a neat and appropriate speech of welcome, which was responded to by the pastor in the same manner. The pastor's address contained a handsome tribute to the history of the church and her former pastors, and a fitting appeal to the new membership. The address was heartily applauded. Miss M. Ivey Robins and Miss M. Ivey Robins, of the official board, gave a most delightful reception to the new pastor, Rev. J. Sidney Peters, a pleasing reception in the lecture room of the church on Wednesday night.

The Virginia W. Harrison, of the official board, made a neat and appropriate speech of welcome, which was responded to by the pastor in the same manner. The pastor's address contained a handsome tribute to the history of the church and her former pastors, and a fitting appeal to the new membership. The address was heartily applauded. Miss M. Ivey Robins and Miss M. Ivey Robins, of the official board, gave a most delightful reception to the new pastor, Rev. J. Sidney Peters, a pleasing reception in the lecture room of the church on Wednesday night.

The Virginia W. Harrison, of the official board, made a neat and appropriate speech of welcome, which was responded to by the pastor in the same manner. The pastor's address contained a handsome tribute to the history of the church and her former pastors, and a fitting appeal to the new membership. The address was heartily applauded. Miss M. Ivey Robins and Miss M. Ivey Robins, of the official board, gave a most delightful reception to the new pastor, Rev. J. Sidney Peters, a pleasing reception in the lecture room of the church on Wednesday night.

The Virginia W. Harrison, of the official board, made a neat and appropriate speech of welcome, which was responded to by the pastor in the same manner. The pastor's address contained a handsome tribute to the history of the church and her former pastors, and a fitting appeal to the new membership. The address was heartily applauded. Miss M. Ivey Robins and Miss M. Ivey Robins, of the official board, gave a most delightful reception to the new pastor, Rev. J. Sidney Peters, a pleasing reception in the lecture room of the church on Wednesday night.

The Virginia W. Harrison, of the official board, made a neat and appropriate speech of welcome, which was responded to by the pastor in the same manner. The pastor's address contained a handsome tribute to the history of the church and her former pastors, and a fitting appeal to the new membership. The address was heartily applauded. Miss M. Ivey Robins and Miss M. Ivey Robins, of the official board, gave a most delightful reception to the new pastor, Rev. J. Sidney Peters, a pleasing reception in the lecture room of the church on Wednesday night.

The Virginia W. Harrison, of the official board, made a neat and appropriate speech of welcome, which was responded to by the pastor in the same manner. The pastor's address contained a handsome tribute to the history of the church and her former pastors, and a fitting appeal to